About LCX:

LCX is a secure and compliant platform for buying, selling, transferring, and storing digital currency. The LCX Exchange is a regulated trading venue offering a range of digital currencies. LCX is a Fintech company focusing on tokenizing assets, utility and security token offerings, and advanced trading tools. In 2020 LCX gained regulatory approval for 8 blockchain-related registrations by the Financial Market Authority. LCX was founded in 2018 with headquarters in Vaduz (Liechtenstein) and branches in Crypto-Valley Zug (Switzerland) and New Delhi (India).

Responsibilities:

- You will design and implement features within the overall architecture of the decentralized product. You will be debugging hard issues independently. You must be self-driven, proactive, and results-oriented.
- You'll need to be a fast-paced individual who can multitask and prioritize tasks based on their urgency in a demanding environment.
- You'll work on writing secure Smart Contracts/Wallets of Cryptocurrency exchange.

Qualifications (MUST):

- 4+ years of deep understanding of blockchain technology ie, Bitcoin, Ethereum, etc.
- Strong proficiency in Node JS.
- Knowledge of cryptography and cryptographic protocols.
- Experience in Web Services, REST API, Websockets & Micro-services.
- Experience in SQL, No SQL, and In-Memory databases, like Mongo, PostgreSQL, and Redis.
- Strong CS fundamentals (Data Structures and Algorithms).
- Ability to work independently as well as on a team and learn from colleagues.
- Experience developing crypto wallets and crypto exchanges.
- Experience in Dockers and Kubernetes.
- Open-source contributions.

Location: Gurgaon, India